AUSTIN GROVE BAPTIST CHURCH

April, 2014

5919 Austin Grove Church Road, Marshville, NC 28103

To Our Church Family and Friends:

Billy Sunday (1862 -1935) had some Sunday sayings. Let me share some of these with you.

ōLetø quit fiddling with religion and do something to bring the world to Christ.

If you want to drive the devil out of the world, hit him with a cradle instead of a crutch.

Iøm against sin. Iøll kick it as long as Iøve got a foot, and Iøll fight it as long as Iøve got a fist. Iøll butt it as long as Iøve got a head. Iøll bite it as long as Iøve got a tooth. And when Iøm old and without fist and footless and toothless, Iøll gum till I go home to Glory and it goes home to perdition.

Live so that when the final summons comes, you will leave something more behind you than an epitaph on a tombstone or an obituary in a newspaper.

The Lord is not compelled to use theologians. He can take snakes, sticks, or anything else, and use them for the advancement of his cause.

I believe that a long step toward public morality will have been taken when sins are called by their right names.

Your reputation is what people say about you. Your character is what God and your wife know about you.ö

Easter 2014 is just a few weeks away. It reminds us, who we are and what we need to be doing. Jesus sought to teach the disciples to convey the Gospel to all people. He taught them to use simple terms to convey His message, so even a child could understand. I think sometimes we get caught up in terms and thoughts that many do not understand or care to understand. We lose sight that Jesus used terms like Follow me, Come, Believe, Trust, Confess, Turn, Teach, Preach, and Be Baptized. These are simple words that mean so much with eternal outcomes in our lives. This Easter may we be reminded of who Jesus is and how he taught and what it means to know and to trust Jesus as Savior of our lives.

May God bless each of you,

Leon & Cindy

My Testimony

A Blessing Recalled

Back in early March I cranked up my riding mower to service it to get it ready for the upcoming mowing season. To my surprise-oil sprayed everywhere, almost. I knew I had a serious problem on my hands. Was I going to have to go shopping for a new lawn mower? I hoped not.

My next door neighbor happened to be outside, and I called him over to get his assessment of the situation. He volunteered to transport the mower to the repairman since my trailer needed repairing and was not street-worthy. He also agreed to pick it up when the repairs were finished. I assured him that I would pay him for his trouble.

He picked up the lawn mower (the repairman had re-sealed the valve cover and tightened the crank case bolts, among other things) and brought it home for me. Just before I was about to back the mower off his trailer, I handed him a couple of bills. He said, "No, that's too much." He insisted that I take one bill back. So I did. He further stated, "I shouldn't charge you anything. You mowed my grass for me while I was in jail."

I had totally forgotten about that. His statement really affected me. Tears came to my eyes. I must say, I was speechless as I choked up. The Lord spoke to me and reminded me of the passage in Matthew 25: "When saw we thee a stranger and took thee in? Or naked and clothed thee? Or when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee? And the king shall answer and say unto them, 'Verily I say unto you, inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me.'"

While he was in jail, I noticed that his wife was mowing their acre with a push mower in the sultry days of late summer in 2005 and that stretched into early summer of 2006, I feared that she would have a stroke or heart attack mowing, and I certainly didn't want that to happen when I could do something about it. I felt led to spare her.

We never know what we do for others will mean so much to them for a long time.

Pastor Saeed Abedini is a formerly devout Muslim who became a Christian after he encountered Jesus Christ in his Tehran bedroom more than a decade ago. In Iran, he established nearly 100 house churches in 30 cities before moving to the United States with his wife, Naghmeh, an American citizen. He returned to Iran with the government's permission to build an orphanage. Since 2012, he has been imprisoned in two notoriously brutal facilities and tortured for his faith in Christ. Despite his suffering, Pastor Saeed continues to boldly proclaim the Gospel to prisoners and guards and has led dozens to Christ.

Naghmeh has remained vigilant in her efforts to free her husband, speaking before the U.N. and on national television. The ordeal has even opened opportunities for her to proclaim the Gospel over the airwaves in the heart of Iran.

Will you stand with Pastor Saeed and Naghmeh in prayer?

Please pray:

- That his release would be imminent
- That God will safeguard his physical and emotional well-being
- For Naghmeh and their children, that God will sustain them and provide for their needs
- That the Lord will continue to open doors for Pastor Saeed to share the Gospel
- That God will be glorified through his imprisonment
