To Our Church Members and Friends,

I want to share a written prayer from Dr. David Jeremiah. This touched my heart as I read it this past week. Psalm 30:12
"O Lord my God, I will give thanks to You forever."

"Almighty God, I want to give thanks to You forever! I want to continually be singing,
"How Great Thou Art" for great is Thy faithfulness. Great is Your majesty! Great is Your Power!
Lord when all goes well with me, it's because You give me strength, when things fall apart, your Grace is sufficient. You know how to turn my sadness to gladness and my rags to righteousness-and why? So that I can sing my praise to You forever without interruption.
Oh Lord my God, I will give thanks to You forever."

Thy praise shall sound through earth and heaven, for sickness healed and sin forgiven. (Isaac Watt's version of Psalms 30:6)

It is so important to never ever forget to give God the thanks and praise for all He continues to do for each of us. This month we designate a time of thanksgiving. What will it mean to you and your family? Will it remain to be just another day or will it be a time to recall and remember all the blessings that God sends our way. Teach your children and grandchildren to be thankful. To give back to the Lord out of the bounty that God blesses you with. Do not forget! Make this a priority in your family and home this Thanksgiving. The meal and fellowship is wonderful, but it cannot hold a candle to what God has done and is doing and will be doing in the life of your family in the future.

Give Thanks with A Grateful Heart!! Thanks for allowing us to serve you. Cindy and Leon

Library News

Many of us can say we have been inspired by the writings of Max Lucado. The church library is richer with eleven added books by this prolific Christian author. Someone has donated the following titles by him:

The Great House of God

Facing Your Giants

Traveling Light

He Chose the Nails

Every Day Deserves a Chance

In the Grip of Grace

God Came Near

A Gentle Thunder

In the Eye of the Storm

The Applause of Heaven

And the Angels Were Silent

They have been processed and are ready to be checked out. They are located on the right hand side of the desk in the library. Come be inspired!
