To Our Church Family and Friends:

Can you believe that June is here? It seems as if the year has just started and here we are approaching the middle of the year. Do you ever think back to the things of summer that were special to you? Let me mention a few. The first tomato, cucumber or squash from the garden, watermelon, cantaloupe, picnics, trip to the beach, reunions, Fourth of July parades, fireworks, fishing in the river/pond, homemade ice cream (hand cranked). These are just a few that bring a smile to my face as I recall those from time to time. Good memories, worthy of our recall. Let me share with you Joel 2:28 NIV "I will pour out my Spirit on all people."

God's Spirit is in you and me. He is our Counselor, Advocate, and Guide sent to those who accept Jesus's sacrifice for our sin and choosing to follow Him. The Holy Spirit lives within you and I to help us follow Jesus. God comforts us. He even helps us to pray when you and I cannot find the words to say. God showed this beautiful picture to Joel (a picture of a day when His Spirit would be poured out and His people would be empowered to do great things for Him. With His Spirit in us, we are one in the Lord. Please never forget that God desires a close relationship with each of us. He is always with us! May this fact bring us great comfort and even greater joy, that nothing can and will separate us from His love.

Thank you for the privilege of serving you.

Leon and Cindy

Pineapple-Coconut Cream Pie

Delane Bennett

Crust

20 crisp oatmeal cookies
1/2 stick of butter, melted

Filling

3/4 cup Sugar
1/3 cup cornstarch
1 can (20 oz.) crushed pineapples in own juice, well drained, reserve juice
1 can (14 oz.) coconut milk
Yolks from 5 large eggs
2 tablespoons butter
1 cup sweetened flaked coconut chopped
1 cup whipping cream
2 tablespoons sugar

Garnish: sweetened flaked coconut, small pineapple chunks

Instructions

1. Heat oven to 350°. Coat a 9" pie plate with nonstick spray.
2. Crust: Crush cookies and add butter. Press over bottom and sides of pie plate. Bake 12 minutes.
3. Filling: Mix sugar and cornstarch in 2-quart saucepan. Add enough pineapple juice to coconut milk to make 2 ½ cups. Stir into sugar mixture, then bring to boil over medium heat, stirring occasionally. Boil for 1 minute. Remove from heat. Whisk yolks to mix. Gradually whisk in about ½ the hot mixture, return yolk mixture to saucepan. Stir over low heat 2 minutes. Remove from heat, stir in butter till melted. Stir in pineapple and coconut. Pour over crust. Cover surface with plastic wrap. Refrigerate 3 hours. Beat cream and sugar and pour over pie.
